

THE SHAMBLES

THE MARKET HOUSE, CASTLE CARY, SOMERSET

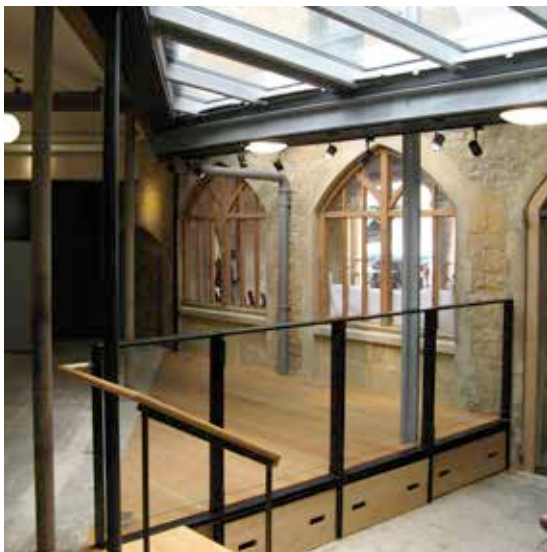

1

2

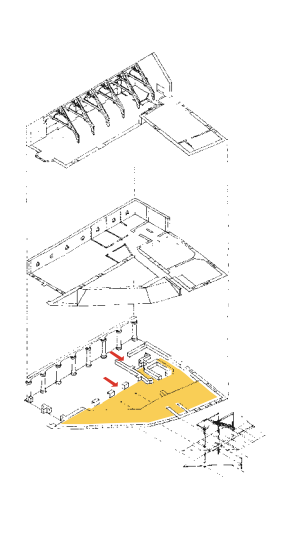

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

The Market House, in the heart of Castle Cary, was built in 1855. The town council wanted to open up the ground floor to increase public use without compromising the building. This involved considerable consultation with the public, the local authority and Historic England.

The final scheme has been to enclose the rear

Shambles with a new glass roof to create a public meeting space which kept the feel of the old market.

Client: Castle Cary Town Council & South Somerset District Council

Contractor: RG Spiller Ltd

Date: 2006-13

Value: £ 310,000

- 1 Castle Cary Market House
- 2 The Undercroft
- 3 New rear stair & balcony
- 4 Converted Shambles
- 5 Shambles tea counter
- 6 Shambles roof concept
- 7 Original back steps
- 8 New steps & balustrades
- 9 Rear stair
- 10 Stair handrail
- 11 Glass roof over Shambles