

LYME REGIS MUSEUM

THE MARY ANNING WING, LYME REGIS PHILPOTT MUSEUM, DORSET

1

2

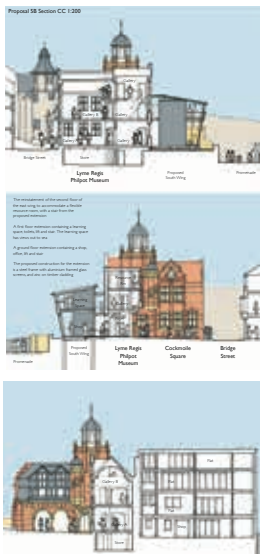

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

Redevelopment and extension of the Lyme Regis Museum included new gallery spaces, education room, visitor toilets, improved circulation, a shop, increased storage for collections and additional office space.

The intention was to reinforce the inward looking character of the original museum building, and create a new extension that opened out to sea. A second phase is planned to reinstate the missing three storey east wing.

Client: Lyme Regis Philpot Museum Trust
 Contractor: Skinner Construction Ltd.
 Date: 2014 - 2018
 Value: £750,000

- 1 Mary Anning wing with the museum behind
- 2 New wing in context
- 3 View out over the beach
- 7 Design model
- 5 Proposed sections
- 6 Design sections
- 7 Site plan
- 8 Photomontage of proposed wing
- 9 New shop interior